ANXIETY ABOUT MISS TOBIN

HOPES DECREASING

THOSE "IN CONTACT" SAY THEY KNOW NOTHING

WORKING ON A FALSE TRAIL

[An Occasional Correspondent.]
Wuchow, Saturday.
The latest information to hand concerning Miss Tobin, of the Church Missionary Society, who was captured by Chinese bandits on Sept. 18 near Chiuping, Kwangsi, is very disquieting indeed.
Expectations as to her release, as promised by the Chiuping magistrate on Oct. 3 were high; and many were planning to welcome her in Wuchow.
However, I learn now that the Tang-uen magistrate, who promised the Chiuping authorities that Miss Tobin would be released on Oct. 3, "knows nothing whatever about the case in question." Further inquiries with the Chiuping magistrate and with the Bishop of Kwangsi (Rt. Rev. J. Holden) are now being made.
From the above information, the Tang-uen trail seemed to have been a false one.

GROUNDING OF H.M.S. "SPLENDID"

RETICENCE

COURT-MARTIAL TO BE HELD AT GIBRALTAR

NO HELP NEEDED

Gibraltar, Sept. 17.
Extreme reticence is being observed by the naval authorities in regard to a mishap which befel the destroyer "Splendid," which returned with a damaged propeller.
The destroyer "Tourmaline" was ordered to Gibraltar immediately afterwards.
It appears that "Splendid" grounded on a sandbank off Malaga, which the "Tourmaline" passed over when leading.
"Splendid" got off without assistance.
It is believed that a court-martial will be held during the week-end. [The destroyer "Splendid," 1,075 tons, is attached to the Mediterranean Fleet. She was re-commissioned at Gibraltar on May 15, 1928. Lt.-Com. J. de C. Richard was appointed to the command in June, 1927. "Tourmaline," 1,075 tons, was re-commissioned at Gibraltar on the same date as "Splendid." Commander J. C. J. Soutter was appointed last April, also to the command of the Gibraltar Local Defence Flotilla.]

In one race they rode as rivals.

The trip will last nearly two months and will cover the best game country of Tanganyika and Eastern Rhodesia, where lions, buffaloes and elephants are plentiful.

BRUTAL ASSAULT

BRITISH SUBJECT ATTACKED BY CHINESE SOLDIERS

Shanghai, Yesterday.
Details of yet another outrage by Chinese soldiery is leaking out. It appears that the Commissioner of Customs at Nanking, Mr. C. F. Johnston, a Scotsman, was returning from the Customs House to his residence on Monday evening, walking as usual along the top of the city wall. He passed four Nationalist soldiers and walked on, when suddenly he was seized from behind by the soldiers and thrown down. He was kicked savagely on the body and face and then his wrist watch and keys were purloined. The soldiers continued kicking their prostrate victim till they were apparently satisfied that he was lifeless when they left him. Mr. Johnston eventually revived sufficiently to crawl home, arriving in a terrible condition.
He arrives at Shanghai to-morrow for medical treatment as there is no doctor at Nanking.
It is reported that the culprits afterwards boasted in a neighbouring village that they had killed a foreigner. It is understood that the Chinese police know the regiment to which the culprits belong but are powerless.
Mrs. Johnston arrived on the "President Pierce" on Tuesday from America.—Reuter.

WORKERS TO FIGHT

AUSTRALIAN UNION'S DECISION

Melbourne, Saturday.
The Maritime Transport Union's conference has decided to adopt a "fighting policy." This was decided upon after the leaders' interview with the Hon. Mr. Bruce on October 4. This means the rejection of the political leaders' advice to resume work and fight the matter constitutionally.
The "fighting policy" retains the clauses about councils of action and the extension of the strike to other unions, but its leading plank is uncompromising opposition to licensees for watersiders. The conduct of the dispute is left in the hands of the council of action, which is meeting on October 8.—Reuter.

The subject chosen for the first year's competition is "Co-operation between Police and Public in the Detection and Prosecution of Crime."
The institution of this competition is announced in a recent Metropolitan Police order.
It will be open to serving members of regular police forces within the Empire or Mandated Territories.—British Wireless Service.

JAPAN-CHINA

THE QUESTION OF NEGOTIATIONS

Tokyo, Saturday.
As the Premier is at present absent attending the annual grand manoeuvres no developments in the Chinese-Japanese situation are anticipated for the next few days, but there are good reasons for believing that the Government is expecting a definite change for the better in the Nationalist Government installed. Though official circles are inclined to be reticent it is learned from a reliable source that the Government are counting on the new Nationalist Government cancelling the abrogation of the Chinese-Japanese commercial treaty in which case the main obstacle to the opening of negotiations and a solution to outstanding problems is removed, upon which Japan will willingly enter on negotiations.—Reuter.

TO STAND TRIAL

WOMAN AND MAN IN TROUBLE

ALLEGED KILLING

At the Central Magistracy on Saturday, two cases involving a woman and a man resulted in commitment for trial at the next sessions.
The first case was heard by Major C. Willson, O.B.E., when a Chinese beggar woman was charged with manslaughter. The Magistrate had previously adjourned the case to consider the medical evidence. The defendant, it will be recalled, is alleged to have killed another beggar woman in Connaught-road West, near the Wing Lok Wharf, following a quarrel over the right to certain rice sweepings.
In the other case, three men were charged in connection with an armed robbery at Wong Chuk Hang, Aberdeen, in the early hours of Sept. 24. The robbers, it was alleged, were armed with poles and knives, and got away with $5 in money and two blankets.
At the request of Mr. T. Murphy, Acting Asst. Director of Criminal Intelligence, the second defendant has been accepted to give King's evidence. The third defendant was discharged as there was no direct evidence against him.
The first prisoner, who had been identified in a parade by the complainant, told Mr. R. E. Lindsell, the first Magistrate, that although he had been identified people frequently resembled one another. The girl identified him, he submitted, because he resembled the robber who committed the crime. Supposing, continued the prisoner, he had been a victim of robbers he would undoubtedly identify the man who resembled the robber who had robbed him.
In explaining his whereabouts on certain days, prisoner stated he had been sleeping in front of the house doors at Lee Tung-street, Wanchai, on the night of Sept. 22 and 23. On the 24th he was working for Chan Kar. He had also been employed by Government contractors to fell trees at the vicinity of Lee Garden.
After evidence was given, prisoner was committed.

A SCHOOL IN DANGER

WIND SAVES 'STOUT MEMORIAL' COMPOUND HOUSES

QUICK RELIEF FOR REFUGEES

Wuchow, Saturday.
Fire destroyed about a hundred houses on the south side of the city on October 4, rendering nearly a thousand people homeless.
Beginning at 11 a.m., the blaze soon swept everything in front of it, fanned as it was by a high wind.
For a while the buildings of the Government Middle School and the residences on the Stout Memorial Hospital compound were in danger, but due to the shifting to the wind and the fact that a newly made road interposed, these buildings escaped.
Four lives were lost—three children and an old woman.
The merchants of the city undertook relief measures immediately after the fire, distributing cakes and rice to the sufferers. The Government also has agreed to distribute food for ten to fifteen days, and to provide temporary quarters for the refugees until their homes can be rebuilt.—An Occasional Correspondent.

MALARIA CONTROL

SIR RONALD ROSS ON THE PROBLEM

SIR M. WATSON'S VIEWS

London, Yesterday.
"As long as I live I will keep fussing them; I want to see malaria controlled throughout the Empire," vehemently declared Sir Ronald Ross in an interview with the "Observer." He said that the whole problem of malaria prevention was one for the colonies themselves, and until they take it up little progress will be made.
In a way it was a curse that we had no serious malaria problem in England. If we had, the Government might be induced to move in the matter.
Sir Malcolm Watson, in an interview, instanced the Federated Malay States as an example of what could be achieved if the problem were tackled in the right way. He said that the cost of the Singapore Base would probably have been at least 25 per cent. more but for the saving effected by anti-malarial measures.—Reuter.

RECORD DIVIDEND

"WINDFALL" FOR THE JOCKEY CLUB

SATURDAY'S RACES

Breaking of the local tote record by declaration of a dividend of $2,574—which went to the Hong Kong Jockey Club—was the opening sensation on Saturday when the first day's races of the sixth extra meeting of the season were held at Happy Valley before an attendance which was more than satisfactory in view of counter-attractions and the beginning of the League soccer programme.

An outstanding feature was the success of Mr. G. U. da Rosa who had six mounts which turned out to be four firsts, one third and one unplaced.

Three of these victories were straight off the reel in this hat trick was associated Mr. Lo Yam-man (who races as "Yam Man"); the popular rider and owner of the Macao Race Club. The string of winners came in the 3rd, 4th and 5th events; Mr. da Rosa's mount in the 4th was favourite; he also wore Mr. Lo's colours in the 6th race and was made favourite again but could only get third place.

The fourth time Mr. da Rosa caught the judge's eye he was on Mr. L. Dunbar's Coos Bay. Incidentally, Mr. da Rosa won the "big" race of the day, the Fourth Aggregate Stakes, on One-Third.

And his prospects in the St. Leger to-day, on Coos Bay, are very rosy.

One-Third's victory in the Aggregate Stakes has brought on an interesting position in the competition. This pony now has 6 points and has a good chance of annexing the Cup.

Fifteen ponies faced the starter in the first race but fields in the other events were small. Still there was plenty to engage the attention of backers throughout the eight races.

Ace of Spades, owned and always ridden (whether on the flat or in steepchases) by L. J. G. Shillington, Adjutant of the 2nd Batt.

King's Own Scottish Borderers, brought about the record, thanks mainly to a fine start. The dividend was $2,574. There was only one ticket in the winning tote and as the Jockey Club takes one chance on each pony in both "places" and "winners"—following a win by an unbacked pony some years ago—the Club won the money.

The "place" dividend of $234.80 on Ace of Spades was the second biggest of the day, this amount being paid on five tickets. Bright Prospect paid $53.50 and Fanning Stag $103.10, the latter racing out of his class.

Uneven Fortunes. Punters' fortune was indeed uneven. Four favourites won and four failed. There was a sequence in the first five races, outsiders and favourites getting in alternately.

Next to Mr. da Rosa among the riders and Mr. Lo of the owners, nobody claimed a great day. Mr. T. L. Wong rode a first, a second and two thirds and remains at the top of the jockeys' list. Mr. Harriman had a first and a second. Mr. Shillington's success was his "maiden" in official flat races and Mr. Backhouse, by winning the novices' event, also broke his duck.

Mr. Charles got so near and yet so far; he rode four seconds! But he had the satisfaction of seeing Mrs. Charles register her colours and celebrate the event by getting a place.

Handicaps Attractive. The five handicaps were attractive, although O-Moon and Coos Bay appeared to have been "thrown in" in their respective races.

The going was all that could be desired; the starting satisfactory except in one or two races in which the starter failed to exhibit patience exceeding jobs.

Because of the repairs to the drainage system there were slight changes in the enclosure arrangements but nobody minded, except a few ponies which seemed to resent being paraded in an improvised paddock which, in reality, was that part of the course between the judge's box and the winning post.

A record dividend of $2,574, beside which place returns of $234.80 and $44.60 receded into the background, a field of 15 for the opening race of the second half of the extra season, and six of these finishing in a line behind the winner—these were the features of one of the most exciting events seen for some time.

Veloz and Nara Stag carried the money between them. Duke of Nieblung also came in for a little demand. Nara Stag showed out best but was passed by Ace of Spades who stuck in front to the end with his challengers gaining on him. The Haugh was second for a while until displaced by Duke of Nieblung who failed to show pace in the straight.

Ace of Spades' victory was a near thing. Behind him were Slang River (who had come up at the bend), Duke of Nieblung, Nara Stag (unable to burst through), Skipper, Veloz and Ploughman all racing in a line with the others nowhere.

Betting was fairly open in this race but, probably because it was their turn to do so, the favourites lost. Spinner received the most support and finished second. Gala Eve was next in demand and finished third. Bright Prospect, Full Moon, Tangle, Man of War and Aristophanes each had their backers and Bright Prospect won after leadership had changed hands several times.

Bright Prospect led from Perpetual Motion but the latter was not concerned with the finish. Gala Eve lay handy. Westlake gained ground on the outside and then faded out.

Full Moon came into the picture with 5 furlongs to go and Tangle also improved his position quickly but to no purpose.

At the 1/4 mile post, the fight was left to Spinner, Gala Eve, and Bright Prospect and the last named was through at the distance post. Gala Eve fell back in the straight while Spinner stayed on to get second money. Tangle was a poor fourth, just in front of Aristophanes.

The end was not exciting but the race, as a whole, was very keen—in spite of the comparatively poor time.

6.—Gascolgne Plate: one mile.

Duke of Verona 266 292

Warrington 270 290

Mowgli 102 144

Fanling Stag 51 86

Caesar 23 61

This time the sequence was broken. It was the favourite's turn to win but he only got third.

Chemal, ridden by Mr. da Rosa, who had won three races of the reel, was the disappointment. Duke of Verona (sent out a second time) and Warrington were joint second favourites. But it was left to Fanling Stag, a rank outsider, to catch the judge's eye in a thrilling finale.

Warrington was away before the others. Chemal, drawn on the outside, set the pace forthwith, followed by Warrington, Fanling Stag, Caesar, Duke of Verona and Mowgli.

Mowgli was soon in difficulties and finished a bad fifth, with Caesar last.

Chemal led into the straight to hold the rails in the last fight.

Fanling Stag had displaced Warrington at the Rock and had become second. But Duke of Verona had also swept up at the village bend and was almost alongside Chemal at the top of the straight.

Now for the run in. Chemal (on the rails) and Duke of Verona battled it out. At the distance post, however, Mr. Harriman shot his mount (Fanling Stag) into the berth between the leaders—and stayed there.

Warrington came again. While Fanling Stag drew ahead at the mile post, Warrington had caught up Chemal but was drawn outside to get a clear run—which, failed. Fanling Stag beat Duke of Verona by a length and the latter was in front of Chemal by a head. Warrington lost place, money by the narrowest of margins.

Grey Eyes 20 47

Berwick 18 22

Duke of Burgundy 13 16

Two of the field of nine were facing the other way about when the flag fell—after several heart-breaking efforts on Mr. Fiddes-

Wilson's part to force them into line and "on their toes." District Call and Movanager were galloping five lengths to the good before some were even moving.

But the race had begun. Misty Eve, the favourite, made a gallant effort as he became a pony placed in last year's Derby—and won by many lengths. District Call stayed on to retain second, in front of Brigade Call, another of the big "uns with a reputation. Brigade Call was second favourite. Unfortunately, he was one of those badly left. He made up ground rapidly in the straight but was not at his best.

Movanager literally disappeared. Duke of Artagnan was not disgraced by getting fourth. Next were Grey Eyes and Little River.

[Note: The Mr. Clark who rode District Call is not the Mr. Clark who has several winners to his credit this year. Initials were not posted.]

Coos Bay 986 496

Sunning 218 137

Wuchang 187 98

U N II 60 49

Once more the favourite did what was required. In fact, Coos Bay, who monopolised the betting, was in front practically the whole distance. He was decidedly so at the end. Sunning followed him at the beginning and even ran together, with Wuchang and U N II a couple of lengths behind.

When half the journey had been covered, Sunning (best backed of the three outsiders) fell back and, at the same time, Wuchang and U N II moved up as a pair, seeming to gain on the leader.

Coos Bay was let out at the 1/4 mile post and won as he liked, thereby promising well for tomorrow's St. Leger. Wuchang drew away from U N II but when Mr. Charles realised the issue was over, he pulled up and only beat U N II by less than a length.

In spite of his light weight, Sunning was outdistanced for speed. Nevertheless, he ran consistently.

SWIMMING GALA

THE GARRISON SCHOOL CHILDREN

EXCELLENT SPORT

The large attendance of parents, friends and others interested in the school, were entertained to keen sport at the swimming gala of the Garrison School, held in the swimming pool of the Victoria Recreation Club, on Saturday.Most of the events were well supported, and all provided fine swimming, but the thing that was obvious to the spectator was the tremendous enthusiasm displayed by the children.Special mention must be made of the high diving event, which two contestants, William Murray and "Ginger" Crossan, tied. In the resultant re-diver, the two again tied, but in the final single dive, Murray managed to win by a few points.
Their diving was splendid.Mrs. Luard, wife of H. E. the General Officer Commanding
(Major-General C. C. Luard, C.B., C.M.G.), presented the prizes and thanks were cordially tendered to the friends of the School who contributed to the School Prize Funds or gave prizes.

General's Speech

Major-General Luard said that before asking his wife to present the prizes, he would like to say a few words with regard to the morn-ing's sport. He said that he keenly appreciated coming to see the sport, which was very fine indeed. That swimming was very important, there was not a doubt, for one could not only save one's own life but also the lives of others. It helped greatly in building fine physique, and was in every way a very healthy exercise. Major-General Luard then made mention of the fine diving of William Murray, who only obtained the "verdict" after several dives. But the General continued, he was given to understand that the diving was not so good as last year, owing to the fact that the Naval Camber was not available and the difficulty in obtaining practice.Referring to other races, merit-ment was caused by the general's expression "won by a short toe" when referring to the race swimmer backs, with feet first. Altogether the sport witnessed had been very fine, and the General concluded by saying that he had thoroughly enjoyed himself.At the conclusion of the prize presentation, three children were given for Mrs. Luard.INDO-CHINA

THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT

The telegram to hand from Nanking, referring to the fact that the Nationalist Government are about to issue a loan for $30,000,000, is at least an indication that China's present masters are now attempting to lick things into ship-shape. They seem to be taking an unconscionably long time to settle down, for though they have now been in complete control of Peking as well as Nanking for at least two months, practically nothing of a really constructive character has been done. The usual unseemly wrangles, mainly about nothing in particular and leading to nowhere, which seem to be inherent in Chinese political affairs, still continue to disturb the atmosphere of Nanking, which evidently the Nationalists are still determined to make their new capital.

Too much, of course, cannot be expected at first, and it should not be forgotten that the victorious Kuomintang, despite their local successes, are still novices in the art of government of China as a whole. They seem, as stated, determined to settle down permanently in Nanking; they have formed a kind of provisional Government, minus a President or a Cabinet; they have made a few diplomatic changes among their representatives abroad, have done something concrete as to the Nanking claims and the appointment of a permanent Inspector-General of the Maritime Customs, have apparently brought about a cessation of hostilities with General Tsang Chung-chang, have promised to settle Shanghai's Postal strike and now have issued what is described as a short-term currency loan. This little catalogue of practical achievement may seem to "give the lie direct" to our contention that the Nationalists are unconscionably long in settling down, which we maintain, seems to be the case notwithstanding what has been done. It is to be hoped that the powers-that-be at Nanking will some day realise that their country is still very much in a backward condition and that if it is to be regarded as a Republic in something more than name only it is more than time that those in Nanking, in the parlance of our American friends, should be "getting a move on."

A telegram from Tokyo on Saturday seems to point to desirable acceleration with regard to China's relations with Japan, for in it it is stated that "there are good reasons for believing that the Government is expecting a definite change for the better in the very near future." It seems that Tokyo is counting upon Nanking cancelling the abrogation of the Chinese-Japanese commercial treaty, and if so it should certainly lead to the removal of the main obstacle to the opening of negotiations between the two countries, and the hope may be entertained of a solution of outstanding problems. The Japanese Government seem to be eager to negotiate as soon as the Chinese Government is ready to do so, and therefore the lethargy that is more or less characteristic and which we sometimes think is chronic among China's rulers, had better give way to a state more in keeping with what is associated with modern progressive ways, which, we understand, is what the Nationalists are anxious that onlookers should believe is their ambition. The Nationalists have now an opportunity of showing to the world what they are really made of, how far they stand apart in breadth of outlook compared with any of their predecessors in Peking or in ancient Nanking, and how, now that they are the undisputed and recognised masters of their country, they can and will show that they have the energy to do what is expected of them, and in a manner worthy of a Republic and a nation that aspires to be thoroughly up-to-date and modern.

Announcement of the following forthcoming wedding have been made:—Mr. D. H. Blake, solicitor, of Messrs. Wilkinson and Crist, to Miss E. C. Williams, nursing sister at the Government Civil Hospital; Mr. E. C. Lam, of the Hong Kong Telephone Co., Ltd., to Miss S. M. Baptista, No. 801, Canton road, Yau-mat.

Pleading guilty to navigating in the harbour without lights, the mistress of a fishing boat was fined $10 at the Marine Court on Saturday.

Arriving with 150 deck passengers, the s.s. "Bourbon" reports the death of one male en route, at 10.30 a.m. on Saturday, no cause being stated.

The body of a man named Ng Kan (56), formerly residing at No. 53 des Vaux-road, Central, was removed to the public mortuary. Foul play is suspected.

A Chinese was taken to the Government Civil Hospital yesterday after having been knocked down and injured by a motor car outside The Sun Co. on Des Vaux-road Central.

A Chinese girl was killed instantaneously, as the result of a fall into the street from the second floor of No. 4, Western-street, yesterday. The girl was climbing out on to the verandah to dry clothes.

A Chinese woman named Yue Hing, 23 years of age, residing at No. 51 Caine-road, 3rd floor, attempted suicide by drinking a quantity of lysol yesterday. She was taken to the Government Civil Hospital.

A Chinese painter, while painting a Chinese school at No. 2, Hollywood-road, yesterday, accidentally fell into the street and was fatally injured. He died soon after admission to the Government Civil Hospital.

Yung Hsi-ki, a clerk, residing at No. 58, Wo On-lane, reports to the police that a cook named Tso Lam has stolen from a locked trunk by means of a duplicate key, a quantity of clothing, valued at $58 and $2 in money. The cook has absconded.

Tang, Yuk-tong, accountant to the Hung Fat Bank, No. 78, Wing Lok-street, reports that an assistant accountant named Yik Hin-yuen, 25 years of age, and a native of Hokshai, absconded on Oct. 1, taking a cheque with him drawn upon the International Bank for $6,000 payable to bearer, which he had since cashed.

MIND AND BODY

NEW CHRISTIAN SCIENCE BY-LAWS

MENTAL SPECIALISTS

The "Christian Science Watchman" states that at the request of the Leader the following new By-laws have been adopted:

Duty to Patients.—In our model Manual, Mary Baker Eddy provided as follows: "If a member of this Church has a patient whom he does not heal, and whose case he cannot fully diagnose, he may consult with an M.D. on the anatomy involved. And it shall be the privilege of a Christian Scientist to confer with an M.D. on Ontology, or the Science of being."

In the broader development of Christian Science Mind-healing there must be "equal rights and privileges," therefore when aid is sought from a Christian Science practitioner, who is a member of this Church, by one who is receiving medical or surgical aid (provided the doctor or surgeon has approved such a request), or when a surgeon or a medical practitioner of recognised standing shall consult a member of this Church on the psychological effect produced by thought on a bodily condition of a patient, it shall be the privilege of a Christian Scientist to confer with the physician or surgeon on the metaphysical aid required. (The legitimate Christian Scientist is a true mental specialist.)

No Interference or Rivalry.—A member of this Church shall not study anatomy, medicine, or surgery, neither shall he meddle in any way in medical or surgical practice; but shall leave such practice entirely in the hands of those duly qualified and legally authorised therefor. Members of this Church shall at all times maintain their practice upon a purely metaphysical basis, lifting the thoughts of the patient to the higher standpoint of Life and its practical, scientific demonstration.

Fees of Christian Science Practitioners.—A member of this Church shall render his services as a practitioner of legitimate Christian Science for such remuneration as shall be considered with the spirit of the teachings of the practice of Christian Science healing in a sacred ministry, into which neither commercialism, nor financial rivalry with medical specialists, can enter.

SMOKING IN BED

WOMAN'S DEATH FROM DROPPED CIGARETTE

CORONER'S ADVICE

The practice of smoking in bed was strongly condemned by Mr. H. K. Oswald, the Paddington coroner, at an inquest on Miss Emma Perry, aged 60, of Balcombe-street, Marylebone, who was found unconscious on the floor of her bedroom at 1.20 a.m.

Archibald Baker, a fire brigade officer, said that a number of partly smoked cigarettes and used matches were found in the bedroom. He thought the fire was caused by Miss Perry smoking in bed and dropping a lighted cigarette.

Mr. Oswald: It is a dangerous and unwholesome practice for people to dope themselves to sleep.

Baker said that some people seemed to be soothed to sleep by smoking and there was always the danger of a lighted cigarette or pipe igniting the bedclothes.

Dr. Hallett said that Miss Perry was not burned. Death was due to cerebral hemorrhage caused by a ruptured artery predisposed by partial asphyxia by smoke.

Mr. Oswald, in returning a verdict of Death from Natural Causes, said: "I think the fire was caused by Miss Perry smoking in bed. If I had anything to do with an insurance company I would not pay compensation to anyone who caused a fire by smoking in bed."

U.S. PRESIDENCY

$1,600,000 EXPENSES FOR THE CAMPAIGN

POLITICAL CHESTS

New York.—Just how big the political chests of two great parties, Democrat and Republican, must be to carry the Presidential election expenses is a matter of mystery.

Democrats announced a budget recently of $600,000, which, according to Mr. J. Raskob, the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, must now be placed at $800,000. He requires $100,000 for a raid on the Republican corn belt States and $150,000 for campaigning by means of wireless. Speaking of the Republican needs, he said: "The Republicans have set a goal up to $200,000, but I have information that it will go up to $1,600,000."

Then: "Daddy," pleaded little Tommy, "if you have finished, can I play with them for a bit before I have to put them back in my box and go to bed?"

No news—"Well, no," said Lum Domm of Slippery Slap, in response to the inquiry of the able editor of the "Tumhuville Torch of Liberty and Tocsin of the Times." "I don't reckon I know any news out my way, except that two, three fellows got shot at a shivaree tuther night, and there was a right lively fight, at the donation party last week and the fiddler of occasion got drunk and fell off'n the table and broke his arm, and a newcomer from Kansas was took out and tar-and-feathered for something or nuther—I forgot what—a while back. Well, that's about all. Wish I could tell you some interesting news, but 'pears like I can't."

Vickers: I'm surprised to hear he's been making love to other women—his wife simply dotes on him.

Wickers: I guess maybe he wants an antidote.

Young—You bought a new car? I thought you were going to have your old one repaired.

Olde—Oh, I found I couldn't afford that.

The rich girl had married a poor poet. She had been attracted by his wavy hair and wide trousers.

"Laurence, dear," she said at breakfast a day or two after the ceremony, "does my wealth make any difference in your feeling for me?"

"It does, Della," answered the poet.

The girl was hurt. She sobbed.

"Don't you see that if anything should happen to me, I shall be happy in the knowledge that you are provided for," explained the young husband.

"But if I should die first, Laurence, what then?"

"Oh, well, in that case I shall be provided for," was the calm reply.

A magistrate said to a witness: "You are fined $2 for contempt of court. Witness: All right. Here's a five, and I don't want any change. I feel far more than two pounds' worth of contempt for this court."

P'RAPS-P'RAPS NOT!

A tourist tells this tale. You can believe it if you like. He was travelling, he says, in the West Country and happened to be passing a little town when he noticed a post on which was marked the height to which the river had risen during a recent flood. The white mark was six feet up.

The tourist approached an inhabitant and said: "Is that a fact that the river here rose as high as six feet?"

"Lor' bless 'e, naw. You see, zur, the children 'ere used to rub off the horriginal mark, so the folk on the Parish Council ordered it to be put 'igher up—out 'o their reach."

"Excuse me, sir," said the caller, "but is this Mr. Dougheman's office?"

"No, it is not," came the angry reply from an individual seated behind a roll-top desk.

"Much obliged!" muttered the intruder.

He departed, leaving the door wide open, and a gale blew in on the irate man at the desk.

"Hi, you!" he shouted. "Come back and shut my door, will you!"

Smiling, the other re-entered the office. From his bag he produced a mechanical appliance.

"Here, sir," he said, "is the very latest type of automatic door-closer on the market. Closes your door without a bang or jar and is guaranteed to last a lifetime."

Deliberately the man eyed the train with cunning calculation as it raced from the tunnel and away along the track of gleaming metals towards him.

With a queer, breathless laugh, he took hold of the points lever at the side of the line; he pulled it over purposely so that the oncoming train would be switched into a side track where stood a string of motionless waggon.

He drew in his breath and exulted with gloating eyes and twitching fingers as the flying engine and passenger-coaches took the points with a fearful awaying, and, with undiminished speed, crashed headlong into the immobile trucks.

There came a harsh, grinding chaos. A hopeless piling and toppling of coaches; a scream of racing wheels; a sudden silence.

Then: "Daddy," pleaded little Tommy, "if you have finished, can I play with them for a bit before I have to put them back in my box and go to bed?"

No news—"Well, no," said Lum Domm of Slippery Slap, in response to the inquiry of the able editor of the "Tumhuville Torch of Liberty and Tocsin of the Times." (Continued from Page 7.)

St. Joseph's forced a corner but were unable to take full advantage although later Hachima scored with a good shot which gave the goal-keeper no chance whatever.

Ward, from a foul on the touch line, brought the scores level at two all, but the Recreio managed to again make the issue certain by adding another two goals through Pereira, who at this point was giving the opposing defence a very rough time of it.

S. CHINA "A" v. S. CHINA "B"
Referee: Pte. Lamb, R.A.M.C.
This meeting of the junior reserve talent of South China at Caroline Hill was very interesting as it displayed the wealth of material in the Club. The Selection Committee evidently selected the best players for the "A" team as throughout the "A" team were superior. At half time the scores were one all. In the second half the "A" team asserted themselves and eventually scored through Ching Chih-ming and Tang Yansheong, the "A" team being easy winners at the final whistle.

Result:
S. China "A" 3
S. China "B" 1

SMALLS UNITS RESERVES v.

R.A. RESERVES

These teams met on the Chatham-road ground, on Saturday, and a scrappy game ended in a victory for the R.A. by 6 goals to 1. The first half was practically all in favour of the Artillery, Hearnle and Seddon proving a dangerous wing, and the former opened the score after 10 minutes' play. The Gunners continued to monopolise the play, but Williamson and Corbett played a fine defensive game, and but for their work heavier scoring would have resulted. Davey added the second R.A. goal after 20 minutes and shortly before the interval Earle put the Artillery further ahead.

Half-time: R.A. Reserves 3, Small Units Reserves 0.

Play continued in favour of the Artillery although Twelves and Waterfield were occasionally dangerous in attacks on the Artillery goal. The former had bad luck on one occasion missing by inches after drawing the defence. Hearnle got through again and almost immediately Williamson put the ball through his own goal under heavy pressure. The Small Units had more of the play hereabouts and Metcalfe reduced the lead with a fine shot. The Gunners fought back however and Hill added a sixth goal shortly before the final whistle.

ROYAL NAVY "B" v. R.A.F.

Navy Ground, Happy Valley.
Navy.—Price (Tamar); Willis
(Cumberland); Met (Tamar);
Harris (Tamar); Sims (Tamar);
Aldred (Seraph); Jenkins
(Seraph); Skull (Tamar); McLeod
(Cumberland); Sorbie (Tamar); Hammett (Seraph).

Royal Air Force.—Bracker;
Hockney, Chambers; Bond, Valice;
Lock; Eaton, Gallaher, Plunkett, Buckland.

Referee: Mr. Ip Kau-ko.

Royal Navy were aggressive from the start and Sorbie scored in five minutes, running the ball through smartly on his own. Jenkins added to the Navy's score. Navy playing a strong game, led 2-0 at the interval.

Skull scored in the second half for Navy and repeated the performance later, the Navy winning well with a little in hand by 4 goals to nil.

KOWLOON RES. v. EASTERN

Played on the Kowloon F.C. ground, this match ended in a win for the home team by two goals to one. Kowloon were early aggressive. White and Davis bringing off some clever movements which nearly led to a score. In the first few minutes Eastern then broke away on the left and Labban was unlucky with a shot which hit the side of the net. Kowloon were quickly back on the attack and Seddon sent over a fine centre which went astray.
After a period of mid-field play,
Davis secured the ball and passed to Hannan, whose header went just over the crossbar, and at the other end Fung Yui-wai missed a great opportunity to open the score.
After 25 minutes' play Eastern were awarded a penalty, and Hussain had no difficulty in finding the net.
Play continued in Kowloon's favour, but the forwards were weak in front of goal.

Half Time: Kowloon 0, Eastern 1.

Eastern were hard pressed from the restart and Rungun had the misfortune to put the ball through his own goal during a heavy bombardment from Kowloon. Kowloon were quickly back on the attack, and Seddon had had luck with a long range shot which went just wide. At this stage the home forwards were playing things pretty much their own way, but failed to score. Shortly before the final whistle, however, Davis gave King

a splendid opening, and the latter added the decisive point.

Result:
Kowloon Res. 2
Eastern 1.

CHINESE ATHLETIC v.

UNIVERSITY

In the first half the teams struggled hard with the Athletic superior, but at half time there was no score.

In the second half Chinese Athletic scored through Li, outside left, a smart goal, and Hu Yu-fai and Chang missed a penalty.

The Athletic were much superior and only a great display by Edwards kept the score down.
The Athletic were much superior but faulty shooting spoilt many chances. Had the Athletic taken all their chances the score would have been much larger in their favour.

PHILHARMONIC

LOCAL SOCIETY HAS GOOD BALANCE

SEASON'S REPORT

The annual meeting of the Hong Kong Philharmonic Society will be held to-day at the Cathedral Hall, at 5.30 p.m.

The Membership of the Society, states the report, numbers 15 vice presidents, seven subscribing members, and 101 ordinary members.

The Edward German opera
"Merrie England" was produced in December, and though the balance sheet shows a loss of $105.76 the opera was one of the Society's greatest achievements, the final performances being produced to record houses. Engineer Lieut. Commander Boddella, R.N., acted as Hon. Producer and Stage Manager, while the Hon. Musical Director was Mr. W. H. Fitz-Earle, A.R.C.M., to whom the great success of the production was due. Mr. C. P. Marcel assisted in the capacity of stage director.

It is with regret that the Committee have to report the resignation of Mr. C. E. H. Beavis as President of the Society. Mr. Beavis has taken a great interest in the work of the Society since 1904, and has held the position of President since 1926. Messrs. Watt, Cornaby and Hayward and Messrs.
Stora and Baldwin resigned from the Committee on leaving the Colony. Mrs. A. M. Bowes-Smith was co-opted to fill one of these vacancies. Mr. H. J. Best carried on the duties of Hon. Secretary until he proceeded home on leave in March, when he resigned, and the work was taken over by Mr. T. V.
Harmon. The duties of Hon.
Treasurer have been carried out by Mr. R. Dormer.

The Society is carrying forward a balance of $1,423.09 to the 1928-9 season.

LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG

"Unreality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday October 7.

The Golden Text was from 1
Peter 3: 10: "He that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile."

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The word of the Lord came unto me again saying, 'What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?
As I live, saith the Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. ... Yet say ye, Why doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father?
When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.' (Ezek.
18: 1-3, 19).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:
"The transmission of disease or of certain idiosyncrasies of mortal mind would be impossible if this great fact of being were learned, namely, that nothing inharmonious can enter being; for Life is God.
Heredity is a prolific subject for mortal belief, to pin theories upon;
but if we learn that nothing is real but the right, we shall have no dangerous inheritances, and fleshly ills will disappear."

WHY THE BOERS HELD OUT

Reminiscences of the South African War.

Dr. John Schmidt, who was attached to the Nylostroom Commando under Commandant Grobbelaar during the South African War of 1899-1900, subsequently related some interesting facts regarding inside conditions in the Boer camps.

"It may surprise many people,"
said he, "in the course of his reminiscences, 'to learn that during the war the Boer Government bought, and the forces commandeered, large quantities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in fact, these pills formed one of the leading medicines in the chests supplied to the commandoes.
Being with the Nylostroom commando I saw many cases where they restored men worn-out and rundown by the rough life, had food and frequent wettings.
Rheumatism was particularly prevalent in the camps, and I have given Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many poor fellows suffering from it who thus obtained relief."

To-day, just as promptly, surely and efficiently as they did in the days of the South African War eight-and-twenty years ago, Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are restoring health and strength to sufferers from debility, rheumatism and other ailments arising from watery, vitiated blood or disordered nerves. Chemists everywhere sell them, but be sure to insist upon having Dr. Williams' substitutes will not do.

UNIVERSITY v. INDIAN R.C.
Visiting Pokfulam Indian Recreation Club lost to the University by eight wickets.

Consistently good bowling, backed up by keen fielding on the part of the home team, were responsible for the poor batting display of the Indian R.C., the latter being able to put up only 35 runs. A. H. Madar being top scorer with 25.

The University passed their visitors' score for the loss of two wickets and went on to make 187 for nine when the closure was applied. D. Laing gave a bright exhibition, hitting out freely for 41. Arculli (6 for 51) bowled well, keeping a splendid length for 13 overs. Scores:—

Sincere Co.'s Entry—The Sincere Co. entered a B.S.A. Motor Cycle and sidecar most beautifully decorated and carried out in wonderful detail, showing a crane's nest surrounded by a typical Chinese water scene.

"Flat"—Special mention should be made of the "Flat" exhibit which was carried out with the usual Italian thoroughness.

A. Lung & Co.'s Entries—A. Lung & Co. prepared eight cars and it showed considerable enterprise on the part of this firm. The model of an old-fashioned galley was well carried out and the "Mencius" car, depicting a story from the "Mencius" period, was striking and effective.

Standard Oil Co.'s Exhibit—The Socony Float was a representation to scale of their usual "model" service station. Besides the gasoline pumps, a complete and satisfactory line of "station servicing" was displayed. To make the exhibit realistic, Miss Sylvia Petrick was shown arriving at the station in a miniature "Rolls Royce," whereupon Master Richard Petrick, as operator, appeared with the usual Socony promptness and courtesy. The "Rolls" was filled with gasoline, motor oil, water, a flat tyre, was blown up, and to complete the standard service job, the car was dusted off.

Empire Car—(Britannia—Miss Barbara Walker, Australia—Miss Essie Rose, Canada—Miss Phyllis Capell, South Africa—Miss Yvonne Kelly, India—Mrs. K. S. Pavri). The car represented the British Empire and was carried out in symbolic fashion, the base of the decorations being Flanders' Poppies and the Red, White and Blue of the Empire. The front of the car carried a Wembley Lion in silhouette.

Britannia was seated upon a dais of gold supported by the four outposts of Empire—Australia, Canada, India and South Africa. "Anzac" symbolised the sunshine of her countries—peace and plenty as she was noted carrying a baby kangaroo and surrounded by wheat, etc., etc.

Canada was in an autumn setting with a typical fir tree behind surrounded by one of the most important fruits of the country—Apples. India was represented by a Parsee lady reclining on a gorgeous Indian couch, a symbolic elephant being in evidence.

Africa stood in a desert setting with a cactus tree and fough scrub set in sand and she was dressed as a typical wild girl complete with rifle, etc., etc.

The Empire Car was mounted on a "Bean" chassis and lighting effects carried out by Mr. A. J. Allison of Lane Crawford's Garage. Decorations by Mr. E. Mowling of Der A. Wing & Co. and dresses designed by Miss Violet Capell. The silhouette of the Wembley Lion was drawn by Colonel L. A. Bird and painted and set up by Messrs. Der A. Wing.

St. Andrew's Society Car—Mr. C. Gordon Mackie this year's president of the St. Andrew's Society undertook to enter a decorated lorry to represent Scotland. The scheme of decoration depicted St. Andrew the patron Saint of Scotland standing on a plinth covered with the Scottish national flag, a white cross on a blue background. St. Andrew is dressed in purple robes, a halo round his head holding the cross, around his bare feet the national emblem were seen growing made all the more realistic as the flowers were illuminated by tiny electric lamps. St. Andrew stood on a revolving platform on the top of the plinth which was so arranged that he was always facing the audience no matter which direction the lorry was travelling. The cross on the plinth was illuminated from inside and showed up very well against the dark blue background. In order to add to the Scottish character of the car and also to lend colour to the decoration scheme, a 5 square foot panel has been let into each side of the plinth and takes the form of an illuminated thistle on a white ground.

The car was essentially an illuminated car and the figure of St. Andrew showed up well by a nice adjustment of electric flood lights mounted on the revolving platform. The overall height of the lorry to the top of the cross was 16 feet and Mr. Stopani Thomson who took the part of St. Andrew had no easy task to perform considering his precarious position on the platform. Mr. G. Murray of the Hong Kong Electric Company was directly responsible for the decoration.

Asiatic Petroleum Co.'s Exhibit—The A.P.C. showed a lorry, the main features of the decoration scheme being a large replica of a "Shell," the firm's emblem. This was supported by a display of tins of Lubricating Oil and Motor Spirit and other products as well known to the public. The lorry was brilliantly illuminated with some seven or eight hundred electric lights and presented an attractive advertisement for the firm.

Japanese Car—This was a beautiful scheme of decoration carried out to represent a Japanese Chrysanthemum Garden and conveying the impression of the glory of Autumn. A touch of realism was added by the presence of Japanese ladies and gentlemen dressed in antique costumes.

French Car—This was entered by the French community showing a typical Chanticleer mounted on a Baby Peugeot Sedan suitably decorated.

Gas Co.'s Exhibit—Generally displayed to show the usefulness of Gas—showing Gas Cookers, Geyers, Radiators, Fires and Water Heaters, in full operation on the "Float." Potato chips cooked en route were distributed to the audience.

THE AUSTRALIAN AIR FORCE

OFFICIAL REPORT

SUBMITTED BY AIR MARSHAL
SIR JOHN SALMOND

OBsolete MACHINES

Canberra, Yesterday.
Air Marshal Sir John Salmond, in his report to the Australian Government on the Australian Air Force, states the Force is established for a firm basis and has developed on sound lines but, owing to the obsolete type of service machines used and the entire absence of reserve equipment, the force is not fit to undertake war operations in co-operation with the Army and Navy he recommends a drastic improvement and a development programme extending over nine years costing £1,139,000.—Reuter.

KALAHARI DESERT

TYPES OF BUSHMEN MEET IN
"CRADLE OF MANKIND"

WHITE MEN'S TRIAL

Johannesburg.—An expedition of white men over the difficult Kalahari Desert, has now been completed. The party was led by Captain Clifford, the imperial secretary.

Many types of bushmen were met with in that so-called cradle of mankind. Outside Kalahari they are often regarded as pure savages just a little removed from the animals they hunt with bow and arrow, but to talk with them, to overcome their natural suspicion of the stranger, to see their life and general habits at first hand, is to realise that these isolated groups of the desert are much more civilised in the true sense than many other natives in South Africa.

They also display exciting dances and their skill in hunting is an art in itself. They move about the desert with nomadic freedom and appear with startling suddenness. Time and again the expedition camped in what was apparently a wilderness of sand and scrub with no animal or human being within hundreds of miles. Yet within half an hour a dozen bushmen would mysteriously appear creeping forward to warm themselves against the camp fire.

Among the many important matters investigated by the expedition was the so-called slavery of British Bechuanaland. Naturally an inaccessible country is the subject of extraordinary rumours, and Bechuanaland has its mysterious whispers by pseudo pioneers. Allegations were also made that conditions analogous to slavery existed in Bechuanaland. The Bamangwato tribe, for example, did not hesitate to use the labour of both bushmen and Kalahari natives and a state of hereditary service then existed.

The British authorities, however, are fully alive to the possibility of such injustices existing in a protectorate and have on frequent occasions publicly warned the chiefs and their assembled tribesmen that hereditary service will not be tolerated in a British territory.

During the course of their journey the members of the expedition heard one big game hunter protest that Bechuanaland was a country where a native had all the rights and a white man none. Although an exaggeration, this seems to help to prove that the protectorate is a protectorate in reality as well as in name.—The Christian Science Monitor.

Saintly, Paradise, and Angell were the names of successive applicants for advice at Willesden. Woman at Willesden: I lent her a dress; and when I asked for it back, she pushed it through the letter-box. Penge magistrates' clerk (to defendant): Did you deny the offence when you were stopped? Defendant: Yes, Clerk: What did you say? Defendant: I made no reply. Counsel at Mansfield: Is light work easy to get in this district? Man: Everybody wants it in any district.

The Western Australian Cabinet has under consideration a reduction in companies' and personal taxes. The evening papers forecast a reduction in the former from 8s. to 2s. and reductions in the latter mainly affecting salaries of from £400 to £900.

PRINCESS MARY'S VISIT TO IRELAND

THE RECENT FIRE

NOW DEFINITELY ATTRIBUTED TO INCENDIARIES

PRESS COMMENT

Rugby, Oct. 6.
Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles left London last evening for Dublin on their way to Portlanna Castle, County Galway, their Irish seat, the outbuildings of which were partially destroyed by fire on Thursday. This is Princess Mary's first visit to Ireland.

Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles will interrupt their journey to visit in Dublin Mr. McNeill, the Governor-General of the Irish Free State.

The fire at Portlanna Castle is now definitely attributed to incendiaries, probably irresponsible young political malcontents who sought rather to embarrass the Free State Government than to insult Princess Mary. It has been found that the petrol had been poured into the stables and servants' quarters which were burned, and a number of empty petrol tins have been picked up on the lawn.

The outrage has provoked indignation throughout the Irish Free State and particularly in the Portlanna neighbourhood where Lord Lascelles is held in high esteem.

The "Irish Times" commenting on the affair, points out that Princess Mary's informal visit to Southern Ireland before she goes to Northern Ireland is an act of faith in southern goodwill and courtesy, and adds, "We might have supposed that not even the most illiterate fanatic could put a political aspect on this visit of the royal lady to her husband's Irish estate."

Arrival in Ireland.
London, Yesterday.

Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles were welcomed when they landed yesterday morning in Dublin by a considerable crowd who cheered them heartily. They motored to the Viceregal Lodge and breakfasted with Mr. McNeill, Governor-General of the Irish Free State.

They then proceeded to Portlanna Castle, their Irish seat.

The little town of Portlanna was beflagged and the inhabitants, assembled in large numbers at the castle gates, gave the Princess and Lord Lascelles a great ovation.

The police have arrested two men on suspicion of being connected with the fire, which damaged part of the castle last Thursday.

Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles will leave Portlanna Castle next Thursday for Ulster, where a great reception awaits them. They will be the guests of the Duke of Abercorn, Governor of Northern Ireland and the Duchess of Abercorn. They will make a tour of the shipyards, rope-works, and linen factories and attend ceremonies connected with the British Legion, Girl Guides and Boy Scouts, and pay a visit to Lord Craigavon, Premier of Northern Ireland, at Stormont Castle.—British Wireless Service.

A "CAT" THIEF

TROUSERS GONE

Mr. William Ritchie, the golf professional at the Addington Club, Surrey, who was staying at an hotel at Le Touquet, has been the victim of a cat-burglar who is believed to be one of an organised gang responsible for several burglaries here.

Mr. Ritchie went to bed at 11.30 one night after having placed his clothes on a chair. When he awoke next morning he found on the floor two pocket-books and two gold coins which he had left in his trousers' pockets.

One of the pocket-books contained £119 and the other £104. They still contained the money, but the trousers had vanished.

Mr. Ritchie looked for another suit, but this also had disappeared, and with it £20 in French money.

It is believed that the burglar entered Mr. Ritchie's bedroom through an open window.

LINCOLN'S INN

CHAPEL'S HISTORY OF 500 YEARS

TWO DESECRATORS

A small but important part of the extensive scheme of renovation which is being carried out at Lincoln's Inn is liable to escape notice, for it is taking place in the gloom of the crypt under the chapel. For several centuries this was a burial-place for the Benchers of the Inn, and among those lying there are Thurloe, secretary to Oliver Cromwell, and William Frynne, the Puritan pamphleteer.

Time and the passage of many feet have almost obliterated the inscriptions and coats of arms which mark the graves, and they are now in process of being restored, a tedious and, in some cases, very delicate operation.

The renovation work at Lincoln's Inn includes also the restoration of the Old Hall, and the bringing into view again of the old kitchen garden in New-square.

There is mention of Lincoln's Inn Chapel in the records of the Inn so far back as 1428, but it was rebuilt in 1623, from the designs of Inigo Jones, and enlarged in 1682, the year the Royal Courts of Justice were opened. It is built on arches, which form the crypt which, like the cloisters in the Temple, was in former days used as a place where members of the Inn might walk and "confer their learnings." The use of the crypt for such purposes was, however, curtailed, as the height of the arches became reduced through the gradual raising of the ground, and for a very long while it was raised on and kept private.

The "Black Books"

Its first use as a burial ground appears to date from 1625, for in May of that year a meeting of the council took place, which is thus recorded in the "Black Books of Lincoln's Inn."

At this council it is consented unto by all the M^{rs}. of the Bench that the cloyster under the new chapel shall be a place of burial, if it may be obtained; and for the effecting thereof Mr. Noy, Mr. Sherfield, and Mr. Hakewell are entreated to attend the Bishop of London.

The ground was consecrated, and thereafter appear many entries recording payments of £1 for burial sites. Not always, apparently, was it treated with the respect due to hallowed ground, for in 1635 the council had trouble with a desecrator, one Mr. Nicholas Love, whom they expelled the society. In the first place Mr. Love "thrust himself" into a chamber to which another member had been admitted, and refused to leave. Then, when brought before the council, he behaved in an "insolent and peremptory manner," and, finally, he "struck and beat the porter under the chappell, and together with two others being utter barriers of this house, did by violence draw the said porter to the pumpe, and there did pumpe him." Mr. Edward Heyon, one of Mr. Love's helpers, was "put out of commons and fined £5 for helping Mr. Love in the pumpeing of the porter, and for boasting and glorying in it at the council."

Possibly because the burial ground was become rapidly filled with the bodies of those who had questionable right to interment there, the council, in 1657, made an order that no-one was to be buried in the crypt except those who had regularly attended commons. Still later, in 1791, they further restricted interments to those of Masters of the Bench, and four years later it was decided to enclose the crypt with railings.
